

I am opposed to the current multi media proposals that are to be voted upon. This is in contradiction to the FCC by-laws that the FCC is independant and in specifics that the multi media ownership rules will help competition. There is nothing competitive or independant of conglomerate companies taking over the media to control the news and information from smaller independant companies. Where is our freedom of the press for the U.S. people now much less the future?